POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Dear Commission Members,

We feel that what Louis DeJoy is doing to the postal service is unconscionable. Please, please, please, "de-commission" him right out of his post as director as he has de-commissioned so many necessary machines and drop boxes. We think his actions are sadistic and power-hungry - to his own benefit.

His blatant destruction of our first industry of service and attempts to steer the function to private enterprise for nothing but their greedy gain is beyond belief and so potentially harmful to our national need and regard for our postal service and dedicated workers. No other nation compares to this service, unless, of course, lining the pockets of others that can control and absolutely desolate what we American's rely upon is the desired end result.

Our mail service is critical and watching it be literally destroyed before our eyes is just heart breaking, and for what? Are his eyes seeming to be only focused on the destruction - literally - and the intent of shipping it off to privateers? What is it for him, the gain for his own future?

It is absolutely shameful if he is getting away with it.

Please do something so save this irreplaceable service to all of us.

Sincerely,

Postal Patrons of well over 70 years
